Near Eve. Dedic, & fam. :-

Got your both letters, so with Nonna's birthday Greetings I also wish to include a few lines. So you might be on the plane at this writing & believe me Eve. I surely will remember you in my prayers during these days, wishing you the best for a safe journey. May the Good Lord & Our Heavenly Mother watch & protect you. For we love you dearly. Had a short letter from Dol. also this mor. & she's coming to Brosten Tomorrow Thur. afterschool. for the wk. end. no doubt go back again Sun. P.M. & she had said Det. will have to miss this one day of school on Fri. so I took it she intends to drive back Sun. (Don't know) We also had a nice

2/ long letter from Sr. Cor. also a photo of her new head-dress. She still expects her wishes to come true for Chile.

I'm sure glad your boys are able to make use of those shoes. I tied an other quilt Mon. (now don't laugh.) this was the 6th one for this winter. I started to imbroide on a pr. of pille-cases yesterday. That Mrs. Remer gave me for the missions.

How, did field work start? It must be going some around here, as we hear tractors buzzing right along. Dadie wants to get some extra 2 loads of black ground for on the garden. I suppose you started at your garden already.

Also our best wishes to Durdie for being elected Pres. at the school meeting.

an other headache to fall in. (maybe?
But live in hopes for the better. eh.?)

3/ Ruth made some cookies of that recipe you send & they sure are good. I must also make some.

Those cheese-cakes recipe's sure sound good & am looking forward to have some with you, (sometime) about the 7th of May, I don't want to make plans at present. So time will tell.

Did Cathy make it up to 3rd bin? as she had stated in her letter? Last Sat. P.M. the martins flew thru. They just had rested on the house for a min. & off they were. Maybe beginning May, they'll come home for the summer! Otherwise nothing else of interest & hope Donna will have a most enjoyabale (16th) am I right? birthday. With greetings to you all from both of us & Oz.'s fam. God Bless You Come Holy Spirit and enlighten the minds of the faithful.
